

Healthcare decision support is just a click away

Making important decisions about your health can be challenging, especially if you're not clear about all of your options.

MedChoice Support™ is a valuable, online feature of your Health Advocate benefit that helps you weigh your choices, so you can choose the care and treatment that's right for you.

Simply log on to the Health Advocate member website to get personalized support when considering procedures, tests, medications and alternative treatments.

MedChoice Support will walk you through the decision-making process, showing you the risks, costs, side effects, recovery times and outcomes for each option. It also features personalized assessments to help you weigh your feelings and preferences about each choice. So you can choose care that may be less risky, complicated or costly.
